❧ Story ❧

With rival factions struggling for power and the land embroiled in chaos, the flowers of war are once again ready to bloom.

Some head to battle in the quest for the Heirloom Seal of the Realm, while others simply wish to test their might.

Another still is on a journey to find the ultimate dish for their lord...

Standing in their path are the mightiest warriors the land has ever seen!

And all they have to help them overcome the challenges that face them is the power that resides in their souls!

What glory awaits those who have the strength to conquer the mighty foes that test their resolve, and claim that which they desire?

The curtain is about to open on the stage where the winner takes all, and the difference between victory and defeat is often razor-thin!
